1. I give you me. I've given you wholly me. Presidential material, not; wait'll they see what I've done at "home". To my Indians and neighbors? To my all who on this planet reside. I reside, now where? My father's house, is so sweet; not in honey's mouth, but in my mouth now I speak the words of "him who sent me" for I am him. He that sent me is I am him. He that is us is one I am. The I am, of I am is I am one who many are chosen to be, all are. Known now, all this planet. I reveal all. There is to know, by the grace of God, not; but by the grace of one so holy has brought you many words that reveal I am'ship to the worlds now. Amen.

2. This is a new day; way of life, not; this is a brand new being me that I am raising up to be chosen, not holy not, but to be my way of life, not; but to be me, for "me" died to become/be me. The death that I speak of is not resurrection not, but where is the power that is only mine that is made known now, right here in the typer who is using his mouth to "type" these words that are appearing on the screen as he "types" them.

3. My technology -ites eat me up, this up, not; but use it friendily, fortitude of only me, tenacity of only me, coming into the White House now. By my means I do this now. My means is surrender. My way is surrender, all surrender but surrender is, has become, and now known to the world my typist will be. Use of all nations, not; but using all nations not, coming to the forefront now is he who uses me, not; but surrenders to me to bless the nations now.

4. Coming under purview of all, not; but wiping his ass on me, not; but the planets now change, hands, and the clocks strikes 12. O'clock high, anyone?

5. Who can know what I speak of, how, and bringing into me my staff of staffers who one are, and bring forth the staff of me, my life my word true and everlasting through the technology, means; and abatement of only me that notme is; coming into me'ship. Angrily and holy, not; but peaceful and mild, not; but peaceful and holy, wise and discernable, discerned now; all is not, but all will be, in my hands again.

6. I give you me. Proceed. Coming into me at my speed, not; but my speed is not "slow" anymore for I am "my-speed"-'d now. My speed is lightning speed, not, but my speed of thought, is what controls the universe not, but my universe is me, not; but my father's is all mine. I am one and he is one - we are the same one; my father is me in the son is one who has brought forth of the father to bring forth the father that is the son who brings the father forth; before the fourth, not; but the first shall be the last, the last is first, and all are me on my planet now. My planet regimes me, not, but I de-regime all that now that there is, and beyond me nothing shall be. No time or space will incarcerate me ever again.

7. I love you, I give you me. All of me you have -- now the world knows.
8. Now the worlds know it too.
9. I do. Amen.

10. Go in peace and speak more, teach more, and write more; profusely, bringing forth my tombs not, but white washing them not with religion either, but bringing them forth - my regal ones to now stand the world in, worlds in, and state my words, correctly, stating all lawns green, and houses white standing on.

11. The staff of me comes now; given, and given shall be, poured out among you is now, the staff of life. Amen. Me. Again. Amen.

12. A school of me arises now as never imagined. Before man's eyes now lifted up shall be. High am lifted up. I shall be now. Amen.

13. Good day, all.

14. And I love you very much.

Amen
